

Forms of Government Matrix

Autocracy – rule by	Democracy – rule by	Oligarchy – rule by	Directions: Read each feature and place a check mark under the form(s) of government that the feature applies to.
Two Types of Autocracy	Two Types of Democracy	Two Types of Oligarchy	Features
			Rule by few
			Rule by one Rule by many
			Rule by representatives
			Rule by religious leaders
			Citizens vote on issues
			Holds elections for leaders
			Controlled by citizens
			Preferred by Thomas Jefferson
			Preferred by Aristotle

0

0

0

Forms of Government Graphic Organizer

Directions: Use the information from the PowerPoint and your notes (chart) to complete the graphic organizer.

1.

Direct Democracy and Representative Democracy are alike because:	different because:

2.

Monarchy and Dictatorship are
alike because:	different because:

3.

Autocracy and Democracy are
alike because:	different because:

4.

and are
alike because:	different because:

Directions: Use the information from the PowerPoint and your notes (chart) to complete the matching column:

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| _____ 1. Democracy | A. rule by god or religious law |
| _____ 2. Dictatorship | B. rule by none |
| _____ 3. Direct Democracy | C. rule by a single person who gained power through force |
| _____ 4. Anarchy | D. rule by a king or queen |
| _____ 5. Monarchy | E. rule by the citizens, voting on issues |
| _____ 6. Oligarchy | F. rule by one |
| _____ 7. Autocracy | G. rule by the people |
| _____ 8. Representative Democracy | H. rule by the people with elected leaders |
| _____ 9. Theocracy | I. rule by the few |

10 7